

Information for Parents and Spectators

Parking - There is ample free parking at the centre although at busy times you may have to use the space behind the building.

Event Arena - Use the main centre entrance, turn left in front of reception

Tickets - Adults £10.00                      Children & Concessions                      £5.00
Obtainable at the door and valid for the day of issue. Price includes all day viewing, programme and results sheet.

Refreshments - The centre has a cafeteria serving hot & cold food and drinks. On Saturday and Sunday there will be a sandwich bar with drinks adjacent to the event arena.

Merchandise - Elite International, the official merchandise suppliers at the European Championships in 2010 will be in attendance on Friday, Saturday and Sunday with a full range of Adidas, GK, Moreau, Beth merchandise, T shirts, Hoodies, Novelties.

Photographs - Helen Cooper of Acer Photo Art will be at the event all weekend. Please ensure you collect the password from the results desk before leaving the centre.

Photography – If you wish to record images using video, mobile phones, web-cams or digital imaging you must abide with the British Gymnastics Photography regulations which can be downloaded using the link on the Pegasus Open web site.

Safety – It is important to keep all your personal belongings with you and ensure these are kept clear of the stairs and walkways. Please remain seated during the competition, only moving around between rounds. Mobile phones and camera flash modes MUST be switched off during the competition. In the event of an evacuation please make your way to the assembly point at the entrance to the Bowling club in the centre car park. Coaches and officials will escort participants from the building. First Aid for members of the audience will be provided by the centre staff who can be contacted at reception.

Other Activities – The centre is situated at the edge of an extensive park with play areas, walks and picnic places. Swimming, Leisure and Diving pools are also available within the centre. Prices and policies relating to children swimming can be found on the centre web site. Maidstone centre, which provides varied restaurants and shopping is within walking distance.